07 Civ. 4699 (LMM) (AJP)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL ON CONSENT

ANDREW J. PECK, United States Magistrate Judge:

The parties having informed the Court that they have reached a settlement agreement in principle and are finalizing settlement documents (see attached letter), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT this action is dismissed with prejudice and without costs, provided, however, that any party may reinstate the action within 15 days hereof if the settlement is not fully effectuated. All pending motions are denied as moot, and the previously scheduled September 10, 2007 conference is cancelled.

SO ORDERED.

Re: Webpro, Inc., v. Jill Schneider-Petrou and Arthur Petrou, Case no. 07-CIV-4699
(LMM) (AJP), U.S. District Court, S.D.N.Y.

Dear Judge Peck:

We represent defendant Jill Schneider-Petrou in the above-referenced action.

I am pleased to report that all of the parties have reached a settlement in principle, subject to written documentation. The settlement will result in dismissal of the case. We understand from your clerk that, under the circumstances, the status conference scheduled to take place before you on Monday, September 10, 2007, at 11:00 am is not necessary, nor will the defendants file answers otherwise due on that date. The parties will submit the signed settlement documents to you as soon as they are available. We understand that the opportunity to plead and the status conference will be rescheduled if the parties fail to submit either a written settlement agreement or a statement concerning our progress to Your Honor within two weeks from today.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra E. Mayerson
